TORONTO: Indian Prime Minister, Rajiv Gandhi is adopting dual standards in regard to Sikh terrorism in India and Tamil terrorism in Sri Lanka, the Sri Lanka United National Association of Ontario, Canada, has told him.

In a communique addressed to Gandhi, the London, Ontario-based, Sluna president, Ira de Silva, states that recent reports indicate that the Canadian government some of these concerns and has told Canada's Secretary of State for External Affairs, Joe Clark, after his recent visit to India, that, on the one hand, India seeks Canadian assistance against Sikh terrorism, while on the other, the Indian government is "actively promoting Tamil terrorism."
