

10 arrivals claim refuge. (1988, April 20). The Globe and Mail.

THE GLOBE AND MAIL, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1988

10 arrivals claim refuge

Canadian Press

VANCOUVER

Ten more refugee claimants arrived Monday at Vancouver International Airport, bringing to 50 those who have arrived without proper documents in three days. Two of the latest arrivals said they were from Sri Lanka, while the remaining eight said they were from China, an immigration spokesman at Vancouver Airport said. The 22 Chinese-speaking arrivals who claimed refugee status Saturday are in custody while 18 Iranians who arrived Sunday have been released.