

Four people killed in election violence. (1994, November 07). The Ottawa citizen .

Four people killed in election violence

COLOMBO, Sri Lanka — A shootout between rival political groups and a bomb explosion at an election rally killed at least four people as campaigning for Sri Lanka's presidential election ended Sunday. Violence has plagued the campaign for Wednesday's ballot. The opposition party's presidential candidate was assassinated Oct. 24.