Geneva,

Dear Prof. Alston:

With all due respect to you, I am not being facetious when I tell you that I had a garrulous laugh with my stomach doing somersaults when I read that you had identified Sri Lanka's forensic report of the Channel 4 video as not being impartial because a Sri Lankan expert, even though he is well qualified and had been attached to foreign institutions, reported on it. My only conclusion is that, this was purely because he happened to have a brown complexion. I know you would deny it, but you might find it hard to convince me otherwise.
