Prof. Philip Alston
 Special Rapporteur on Extrajudicial, Summary of Arbitrary Executions

New York, NY

Dear Philip:

It certainly took me a while to figure out the rules of your new Country War Crimes Board Game that you have used Sri Lanka as the guinea pig to test its effectiveness – Phlip(Flip) All Stones and win a Chanel 4 TV.

Hmmm... tricky, tricky! I know it is tricky as the player has to Phlip(Flip) All Stones against you and try to corral the country Israel that you are guarding from the Goldstone Commission Report that might prove that Israel is a perpetrator of war crimes and not necessarily Sri Lanka that you have bullied to perform in this dry run of your Country War Crimes Board Game before it is copyrighted and released to the market around the world.

Well, Philip, I will give you an A for your entrepreneurship however biased and nasty I think the Board Game is.

Even if Sri Lanka manages to corral Israel having Phlip(Flipped) All Stones around Israel and win the game, your rules expect the winner to sing the Nursery Rhyme –

'A Hunting we will Go, a Hunting we will go, Heigh Ho, the UN-o, a Hunting we will go' to satisfy you to win the Chanel 4 TV set.

Since you are in charge as the adjudicator, you I understand have always ruled that the winner's singing Heigh Ho, the UN-o as "not compelling enough". Hmmm... tricky... tricky Philip. I am not sure what chance Sri Lanka has when it will sing the nursery rhyme with a Sri Lankan accent and not an Australian Waltzing Matilda accent.

You know what Philip? I'd like to accept your challenge in playing the Phlip(Flip) All Stones and win a Chanel 4 TV War Crime Board Game. I bet I will corral Israel and win singing the nursery rhyme Heigh Ho the UN-o with an Australian Waltzing Matilda accent, and show the world that you have that White-colonial nasty streak as a Third World basher and refuses to investigate alleged war crimes by Israel according to the Gladstone Commission Report and going after Third World's puny Sri Lanka for the only reason that she whipped the butts off the Tamil Tigers to oblivion when the western countries wanted to save its leadership with a "ceasefire". I dare you to look directly into my eyes and tell me that it isn't true, Professor Philip Alston!

Philip, do you I smell a rat here? A nasty and a putrid one at that!

Sincerely,
